Some members of the Hunter College Department of German participate in the graduate program in Germanic languages and literatures, which is housed in the Department of Comparative Literature at the Graduate School and University Center (GSUC). In most semesters the Hunter College German Department offers one course (a "bridge course") which maybe taken by undergraduates who are about to enter graduate school in German in GSUC.

For information on these courses please consult Professor K.E. Kuhn-Osius at 212 772-5068, or Professor Annette Kym.

For information about the German program at the Graduate School and University Center please contact Professor Tamara Evans, Acting Dean of Humanities, Queens College, CUNY, (718) 997-5790.

MASTER OF ARTS

The MA is offered either as a terminal degree or as the first year (30 credits) of work toward fulfilling the requirements of the PhD within the City University. The university's doctoral program in history is described in the Bulletin of the Graduate School, <http://web.gc.cuny.edu/History/>. Advanced doctoral seminars and university colloquia are offered at the CUNY Graduate School and University Center, 365 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10016.

Requirements for Admission

General admission requirements to the graduate programs in the arts and sciences are observed. Students who enter the program through an accelerated BA/MA program in history must complete the undergraduate distribution requirement before any graduate course work may be started.

Requirements for the Degree

A reading knowledge of one language is required, to be determined by a written examination. The choice of language must have the approval of the graduate adviser. The student is required to pass an examination in one field of history chosen from the following: ancient, medieval, early modern (to 1815), modern Western European (from 1789), British, Eastern European, American, Latin American, Jewish, East Asian, African, or Middle Eastern history.

After completion of all other requirements, the candidate for the degree must present a satisfactory master's essay (prepared in conjunction with the thesis seminar), approved by two faculty scholars in the appropriate field of history. Guidelines for the writing of the master's essay are available from the graduate adviser.
